Please read the following notes carefully before completing the application. They are designed to help in completing your application to the Summer School.

1. Applications to the Summer School are assessed on the basis of the information you provide on this form. Please type the required details and check boxes where applicable. While we may contact you for further information, this may not happen, and will in any case delay our decision.

2. To ensure an excellent learning environment, participation is limited to approximately 10-15 exceptional graduate students from around the world. Interested scholars are required to apply with a paper within one of the following research fields:
   * Decision making under uncertainty, with applicability on innovation-relevant questions
   * Patterns and forms of innovative activities
   * Economic and innovative dynamics of sectoral structures
   * Innovative change, increasing product variety and demand
   * Knowledge diffusion and absorption
   * Political and institutional dimensions of change

3. We expect the presentation of the paper during the Summer School.

4. After the application has been accepted, a registration fee of 100 Euro must be submitted. The registration fee must reach the Summer School Office by 30th June 2010.

5. The completed form should be returned together with the paper on 31st May 2010 at the latest to the address below. We can accept faxed or emailed application forms. If you would like help completing the form, please contact the Summer School Office using any of the following listed below (we prefer email, if possible).
   Email: simon.wiederhold@uni-jena.de
   Phone: +49 (3641) 943263
   Postal Address: Carl-Zeiss-Strasse 3, 07743 Jena, Germany

6. The decision on the application will be made by 15th June 2010.
